July in Antibes !

July means live music in Antibes and Juan les Pins. Visitors are flocking to the beaches as the summer season reaches its peak. July is the hottest, driest month in Antibes and is the height of the season. Average temperatures generally sit between a low of 18°C in the evenings and a high of 27°C during the day. There is very little chance of rain and the sun shines for roughly 15 hours a day, with sunrise around 06:00 and sunset after 21:00. Sea temperatures have warmed up to an average of 22°C. You get the picture: it's hot - day and night!

Bastille Day is celebrated across the whole of France with a bang. Well, several bangs in fact, as fireworks always feature heavily. The Bay of Antibes and Juan les Pins will put on a spectacular fireworks show with lights and sound on the 14 July. The month of July is filled with music from various countries and in a variety of settings. The famous Jazz à Juan Festival kicks off mid-month, so get ready for some top music on the Côte d'Azur. Even if jazz isn't your thing, the atmosphere around this event is electric – one not to be missed this summer. Although it may seem that July is the month of evening entertainment and music, you shouldn't forget that there are also plenty of outdoor activities to enjoy during the day. Antibes is a wonderful choice for a holiday in July.
